MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, Weapons Coordination Group*SUBJECT : Military Intelligence*REFERENCE :  28 January 1964

STAT

In elaboration of reference DDI Notice appointing you Chairman of the Weapons Coordination Group to assist me in the discharge of my responsibilities in the area of foreign military intelligence, I am particularly anxious to have you perform the following:

1. Monitor the relationships with the other Agency Directorates as they affect intelligence assessments concerning military matters.
2. As required, in the absence of an established Agency position, or when none is in preparation by another existing mechanism, initiate through command channels the preparation of a common Agency position on major intelligence problems involving the assessment of foreign military developments.
3. Review on a continuing basis CIA coverage of military intelligence matters, and, where indicated, recommend changes or modifications to insure effective and timely production of intelligence.
4. Maintain liaison for the DDI with various components of the Department of Defense as appropriate.
